Branch Telephone Handy.

A branch telephone has been in-stalled in the captain's office of En-gine Company No. 1, in the quarters on Bank street. The telephone is being used more and more to send in alarms and since the automatic apparatus which is used to send in an alarm for any box in the city is located in the captain's office, this makes it possible to send in an alarm in short notice.

WILLIMANTIC WILL HAVE NO CITY NURSE

Resolution in Favor Turned Down by 25 to 9 Vote.

A special city meeting was held at the town hall, Thursday evening to de-cide whether a public health nurse is necessary or not. The following res olution was offered: Resolved, That the city of Willimantic, in special city meeting assem-bled, do hereby vote to employ and engage a public health nurse for said city, whose duties, compensation, and term of appointment shall be determn-ed by the comen council of the city of willimantic.

There were about forty present and the vote seemed to be equally divided. M. E. Lincoln and W. C. Noyes spoke in favor of the idea and at 8.15 Mayor Dunn asked for a vote on it by acclamation, and the sides seemed to be about evenly balanced. The resolution was again read and Mayor Dunn asked for u vote by acrjamation on whether any action should be taken or not and those in favor of taking no action seemed to be in the majority. Upon the request of Mr. Lincoln, two men were appointed by Mayor Dunn to count those in faor of and against the meeting taking action on the resolution. Charles Ca-pen and J. M. Shepard were appointed and 25 of the 36 voting were in favor of taking no action. The meeting adjourned at 8.20 after a session of about fifteen minutes.
